

I am very concerned about the proposal to lift the cross-ownership ban. I am already having a difficult time finding unbiased news. I go to the CBC or the BBC because I feel that US coverage of the Afghanistan situation overlooks many issues. Allowing cross-ownership of TV stations and newspapers can only make it more difficult for citizens to be informed. We cannot learn how to deal with the rest of the world with news filtered through non-competing entities.